The Stationary Engineers of this city are raising steam, preparatory to setting the machinery in motion for a grand torchlight procession on Monday night, April 15th. In other words they are going to have a ball, and a fine orchestra has already been engaged to furnish the musical accompaniment for the torchlight parade. The dancers who will participate in the festivities.

Call on Charley Strohn, the well known merchant tailor, and inspect his fine assortment of piece goods for spring and summer wear, prepared by him during his recent visit to the east. His stock consists of a full line of all the latest and most desirable shades and patterns of cloths, cassimeres and suitings, especially adapted to the wants of his patrons, and the high and reliable standard of his work finds no superior, either in style and perfect fit in Canton.

Two burglars entered the house of Geo. King, of Homeworth, in the absence of the family one night last week and hunted for valuables and found $300 and appropriated it. A light was seen by persons passing. Neighbors were quickly aroused and surprised them. One named Leubart murdered, and the other dashed out for liberty and escaped. Next day he was captured in Alliance and both taken to New Lisbon. The $300 was recovered. They belonged in the neighborhood.

The city of Canton is sued by Hon. T. C. Snyder for heavy damages, resulting from a broken leg, caused by his buggy being upset one dark night last fall on Plum street. It seems the street was obstructed by building material and earth, and no light was placed there, and then it is the practice after 12 p. m. to envelop our gas-lighted streets in darkness. The outlying streets are lit all night by gasoline lamps. This accident shows great carelessness somewhere.

Messrs. Gow & Cadzow, the dry goods firm who opened out in the Clark-Zellers block, North Market street, a year ago, are about to remove to East Saginaw, Michigan. We regret to lose a worthy firm from our city, but hope they will never regret it. Messrs. Gow & Cadzow are accomplished business men, worthy of all honor and confidence. We wish them the best of good fortune wherever they may go, for we know they will deserve it.

"Oh, the ministers never make anything by pitching into our profession," said an actor, as he flung his thumb over his right shoulder toward the company's agent when the conductor asked for his ticket, "somehow or other they must always get left. That evening the Bishop preached a red-hot sermon against these fellows, calling them 'giddy about the pot of hell.' Next morning Schaefer heard of it, called on the church trustees, handed them his check for $200, and three notes each for the same amount, with the remark: "Take those notes to the Bishop. If he approves of them let me know. I insist that the Bishop see them." The notes were sent to the Bishop, and he found them to read like this: "One year after date I promise to pay to trustees of and for the benefit of the First Methodist Church of Canton $200, and also unpaid board and other bills amounting to $50. Assured he would a box of cigars to get money to leave town."

FISGS AND THISTLES.

A Quot of News from Our Waynesburg Correspondent.

Whilst hundreds and thousands of our fellow men living in the valleys of the Ohio and Mississippi have suffered indescribably much through the late floods, we have here escaped with comparative little loss. It is true the streams are still high, but there is no danger of them beyond the banks without endangering to any great extent either life or property. Certainly we are all thankful for this fortunate escape from harm.

During the last week the affairs of our town have been conducted more quietly and unobtrusively than usual, in consequence of bad weather and the consequent rough drive-way. The old spirit of the town seemed ready last Thursday once more to revive. A ripple of excitement, however, only momentary, passed over our people when it was reported that the Honorable Sheriff of Stark county, once again levied on the property of a poor persecuted man. We say the excitement was but momentary, because this kind of thing, the visit of the Sheriff has become a very common occurrence in this particular neighborhood. Though so frequent as to create little excitement, we trust that the often appearance of the Sheriff in our midst may teach the people of this community that "honesty is the best policy."

Our sprightly little monthly journal made its appearance once more some days ago and "on time." The last issue contained the usual amount of news that served to entertain and refresh. But one thing we must do. We must take exception to the article on water works. There is no doubt but what our town in a number of instances stood in great danger of being burned to the ground, but the fact is that the burning of the county fair last September, and this brought Williams to the Rupert residence on North Market street, a little over a mile from the square, where he became acquainted with Mrs. Rupert. As Mr. Rupert was obliged, by the nature of his employment, to be down town from early morning until eight or nine o'clock at night, Williams and the faithless wife had the field all to themselves, the confiding husband never for a moment suspecting that his wife was unfaithful to him. But woman is a queer creature and past finding out. It is not known which way the guilty couple has headed, but in all likelihood they have gone west.

A New Summer Resort.

A work of no little importance to the many frequenters of Meyers' Lake during the hot months of summer is now under way, and when completed will be a most attractive and desirable place of that popular summer resort. A large and spacious building, combining both hotel and pavilion, is in progress of erection on the east shore of the lake, and is rapidly nearing completion. This structure is to be three stories in height, 100 feet in diameter, and of a pleasing style of architecture. The first floor will be devoted to a first class restaurant and dining hall; the second, which is 40 x 50 feet clear of all, will be used exclusively for dancing and roller skating; while the third floor is to be divided off into large and commodious apartments, which will be furnished in an elegant manner. In the rear of the hotel a fine half mile race track will be constructed, and a spacious stable erected, capable of accommodating fifty horses. A new bowling alley will also be built in close proximity to the hotel. A new road will be laid out leading from Massillon, which will run around the outlet of the lake to the pavilion, while the road from Canton will lead direct to the pavilion, by way of the west cemetery, and will be fully a mile shorter than the present one. The new hotel and grounds are splendidly located, having about fifty acres of wood around with a frontage on the lake of about a mile. Mr. Henry Miller is doing the carpenter work, and the new resort will be opened to the public about May 1st. The new grounds will be christened the Lake View Summer Resort.

They are being erected by Ed. J. Meyer & Bro., and will be conducted by them.

A Meeting of Fruit Growers.

A number of fruit growers met at the residence of Mr. Rupert a few days since, and organized by calling C. W. Faust to preside and making B. F. Berles secretary. After an interchange of views as to the effect of the recent ordinance enacted by the City Council of Canton, it was on motion resolved to call a meeting of all fruit growers around Canton, and Messrs. Rupert, Hang and Faust were appointed a committee to secure a room for said meeting.

The committee have secured Grange Hall for the meeting, and all fruit growers interested in the Canton market are invited to attend said meeting, on Friday, March 7th, at 5 1/2 a. m. Town dealers are also invited to attend. The object of the meeting is to consider the effect of the new ordinance upon all who shall deliver produce in Canton. It is hoped there will be a full attendance.

A Baseless Slander.

A young girl—a fallen woman of the town—perished from exposure during the recent cold spell at Canton. She was refused admittance to any and every house, and hence had to perish. The people were too busy with missionary work to revive her, to give her any attention. May the good Lord have mercy upon us all, and deliver us from such philanthropy.—[Massillon Democrat.]

reads, every one that mingles in society, is constantly meeting with almost no objects on which further information is needed and desired. If the facilities for reference are at hand, they are consulted, and not only is the curiosity gratified and the stock of knowledge increased, but perhaps information is gained and ideas are suggested that directly contribute to the business success of the party concerned. Hence, the necessity for a Cyclopaedia. A good Cyclopaedia sheds glory and honor over every household, and there is no better published than Appleton's American. In the language of a former president of Harvard College, "It is a well-selected library in itself." Parents who have the means, even though it require a sacrifice of some of the luxuries of life, will not measure up to the full standard of duty to their children if they do not place a set of this great store-house of knowledge within their reach and encourage them to use it.

Young men who are receiving only a meager salary, can, by a little economy, save enough each month to meet the payments required by the publishers, and in two years not themselves in possession of a work that will enable them to become leaders in the best society and secure the most lucrative positions in business.

Board of Health Meeting.

The Board of Health at a special meeting on Wednesday evening last, resolved to appoint a Sanitary Policeman. Applications will be received March 15th. The duties of the office daily, and when ever they discover the violation of a State or municipal law, enacted for the protection of health, cleanliness or general comfort, to take immediate steps for its suppression. As a large proportion of our inhabitants are Germans, many of whom are unable to understand English, it will be necessary that the officer speak German. He will also be required to wear a uniform and give bond for the faithful discharge of his duty.

Canton Gun Club.

At a meeting of the Canton Gun Club last Saturday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, George W. Lawrence; Vice President, P. P. Bush; Secretary, J. J. Clark; Treasurer, L. J. Miday; Messrs. Ed. Goldberg, James Robbins and F. W. Schaefer were appointed new executive committee by the president. J. J. Clark was chosen captain of the club for another year. The membership of the club is limited to fifty, and arrangement was made to present a gold badge to the member who has the highest average score at the close of the year.

Sudden Deaths.

George Eberole, a well known citizen, aged over sixty years, died suddenly at his residence 232 North Market street, last evening. Mr. Eberole had been chasing a cow around, and returning to the home remarked to his wife, "how foolish I was to do that and exhaust myself." Immediately afterward he expired.

David S. Oberly, son of Christian Oberly, also expired suddenly about five o'clock yesterday evening, at his residence 31 South Main street.

To the Penitentiary.

The following named prisoners convicted at the present term of Common Pleas Court were taken to Columbus Thursday morning, via the Connoton railway: Charles Hodge, forger, five years; Ervine Schriver, burglary and larceny, two years; Patrick Harlow, cutting with intent to kill, fifteen months; Edward E. Howell, larceny, two years; Michael Munroe, burglary, one year; Charles Keller, larceny, one year.

A Little Premature.

The Canton correspondent of the Cleveland Leader says: "The City Council has granted right of way to the Canton Street Railroad Company." The City Council has done no such thing. It has merely ordered the publication of the company's petition for the period of three weeks, as provided by law. The said correspondent should inject a little more truthfulness into his reports.

Death of Judge Heidenbrand.

Word was received here yesterday that Judge A. W. Heidenbrand, formerly Probate Judge of this county, died at Jacksonville, Florida, whither he had gone for the benefit of his health about two years ago. The remains are on their way to this city and are expected will reach here on Sunday evening.

THE WALLACE-MCKINLEY CONTEST.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Committee on Elections has set the Wallace-McKinley contest for a hearing before a sub-committee next Monday. Both sides have their cases carefully prepared with an elaborate mass of testimony. It is probable several days will be occupied with the investigation of the case.

SHERMAN'S COMMITTEE STOPS SHORT.

Honest John Sherman's investigation of the late Danville riots came to a sudden halt for want of funds. The House has failed to act on the bill of the Senate making an appropriation for the payment of witnesses and the Sergeant-at-arms will not honor their warrants.
